

THE PLATFORM MEANS STAND PAT--STRADOLE

Resolutions Adopted by the Republican National Convention Declare that "If" the Tariff Is Changed it Should Be Done by that Party.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 22.—Here are the principal features of the platform adopted by the Republican National Convention:

We promise to continue these policies and we declare our constant adherence to the following principles:

STAND PAT WITH AN IF.

Protection which guards and develops our industries is a cardinal policy of the Republican party. The measure of protection should always at least equal the difference in the cost of production at home and abroad. We insist upon the maintenance of the principles of protection, and therefore rates of duty should be readjusted only when conditions have so changed that the public interest demands their alteration, but this work cannot safely be committed to any other hands than those of the Republican party. To intrust it to the Democratic party is to invite disaster. Whether, as in 1892, the Democratic party declared the protective tariff unconstitutional, or whether it demands tariff reform or tariff revision, its real object is always the destruction of the protective system. However specious the name, the purpose is ever the same.

A Democratic tariff has always been followed by business adversity; a Republican tariff by business prosperity.

To a Republican Congress and a Republican President this great question can be safely intrusted. When the only free-trade country among the great nations agitates a return to protection the chief protective country should not fail in maintaining it.

FOREIGN MARKETS.

We have extended widely our foreign markets, and we believe in the adoption of all practicable methods for their further extension, including commercial reciprocity wherever reciprocal arrangements can be effected consistent with the principles of protection and without injury to American agriculture, American labor or any American industry.

We believe it to be the duty of the Republican party to uphold the gold standard and the integrity and value of our national currency. The maintenance of the gold standard, established by the Republican party, cannot safely be committed to the Democratic party, which resisted its adoption and has never given any proof since that time of belief in it or fidelity to it.

While every other industry has prospered under the fostering aid of Republican legislation, American shipping engaged in foreign trade in competition with the low cost of construction, low wages and heavy subsidies of foreign governments has not for many years received from the Government of the United States adequate encouragement of any kind. We therefore favor legislation which will encourage and build up the American merchant marine, and we cordially approve the legislation of the last Congress, which created the Merchant Marine Commission to investigate and report upon this subject.

FOR POWERFUL NAVY.

A navy powerful enough to defend the United States against any attack, to uphold the Monroe doctrine and watch over our commerce is essential to the safety and the welfare of the American people. To maintain such a navy is the fixed policy of the Republican party.

We cordially approve the attitude of President Roosevelt and Congress in regard to the exclusion of Chinese labor and promise a continuance of the Republican policy in that direction.

The Civil Service law was placed on the statute books by the Republican party, which has always sustained it, and we renew our former declarations that it shall be thoroughly and honestly enforced.

We are always mindful of the country's debt to the soldiers and sailors of the United States, and we believe in making ample provision for them and in the liberal administration of the Pension laws.

We favor the peaceful settlement of international differences by arbitration.

We commend the vigorous efforts made by the Administration to protect American citizens in foreign lands, and pledge ourselves to insist upon the just and equal protection of all our citizens abroad.

Our great interests and our growing commerce in the Orient render the condition of China of high importance to the United States. We cordially commend the policy pursued in that direction by the Administrations of President McKinley and President Roosevelt.

ALL THAT IS SAID ABOUT TRUSTS.

Combinations of capital and of labor are the result of the economic movement of the age, but neither must be permitted to infringe upon the rights and interests of the people. Such combinations, when lawfully formed for lawful purposes are alike entitled to the protection of the laws, but both are subject to the laws, and neither can be permitted to break them.

NOMINATIONS ARE POSTPONED A DAY

equal representation—all of which was known beforehand. The report of the Committee was adopted unanimously.

Speaker Cannon, of the House of Representatives, was introduced as permanent chairman. He was escorted to the platform by John D. Long, Senator Culom, of Illinois, and Representative Burton of Ohio.

The convention woke up in reality. The old gentleman got a great reception, and his speech, delivered in the characteristic Cannon manner, was enthusiastically received.

MR. CANNON RAMBLED.

A remark made by Speaker Cannon at the beginning of his address, when he confessed that he had not been able to memorize what he had written and said, "Now, we will begin to ramble," was the signal to the leader of the band to play that popular melody, "And he rambled till the butcher cut him down." Everybody was in good humor, and the close of the speech was the signal for another outburst, showing how firmly "Uncle Joe" is entrenched in the esteem of his party.

ABOUT THE TRUST BUSTERS.

"Our friends the enemy," said Mr. Cannon, "come out with strong lungs as 'trust-busters,' but did anybody ever hear of them doing any 'busting'?" But young, true man in Washington has seen to it that laws are enforced, and they went out of existence. That's the difference between us and the other people—one 'busts' by wind, the other 'busts' by law." And here the convention once more broke into loud cheers.

His assurance that the "man in the White House," Theodore Roosevelt, would enforce the laws, was the signal for another tribute of applause.

As he uttered the words "good-by" at the close of his address the delegates rose, cheering and waving hats, flags and handkerchiefs. The Chairman paid but little heed to the applause after one bow as he closed, but returning finally to his seat entered upon the work of the convention. The band played "The Star-Spangled Banner," the delegates and spectators rising.

There was a stay in the proceedings after the close of Mr. Cannon's speech while Mr. Root and others on the platform crowded around the Chairman to thank him for his speech. Mr. Cannon remained apparently oblivious to the demonstration.

MCHESNEY SURE TO GO OUT WEST

Big Mack Certain Starter in the $50,000 World's Fair Handicap and Will Reach St. Louis Tomorrow Morning.

(Special to The Evening World.)

FAIR GROUNDS RACE TRACK ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 22.—According to information received by the Fair Grounds officials to-day, McChesney is a certain starter in the World's Fair Handicap Saturday. Trainer Sam Hildreth wired Secretary Hockmeyer saying he would arrive in St. Louis Thursday morning with McChesney and Wirt, and that both would be sent to the post.

McChesney, it is said, has shown great improvement in his recent workouts, and this led Hildreth to change his mind about withdrawing him. A special car has been ordered by Hildreth for his recovery and they leave Chicago for the Chicago and Alton Railroad at 9 o'clock this evening, arriving at the track early in the morning. Stalls are being prepared for them in a barn adjoining the one which houses Hockmeyer's great rival, Hermie.

McChesney will probably be brought to the track on Friday morning. Indications are that at least ten will go to the post in the race. This will include Hermie, McChesney, Gold Heels, possibly Dick Wells and one from the Drake stable.
